I Sing the Almighty Power of God

I sing the almighty power of God, that made the mountains rise, that spread the flowing seas a-broad, and built the lofty skies. I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day, the moon shines full at God's command, and all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of the Lord, who filled the earth with food, who formed the creatures thru the Word, and then pronounced them good. Lord, how thy wonders are displayed, wher-e'er I turn my eye, if I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the sky.

There's not a plant or flower below, but makes thy glories known, and clouds a-rise, and tempests blow, by order from thy throne; while all that borrows life from thee is every in thy care, and everywhere that we can be, thou, God are present there.

He Leadeth Me: O Blessed Thought

He leadeth me: O blessed thought! O words with heavenly comfort fraught! What-e're I do, wher-e're I be, still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

Refrain: He leadeth me, he leadeth me, by his own hand he leadeth me; his faithful follower I would be, for by his hand he leadeth me.

Sometimes mid scenes of deepest gloom, sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom, by waters still, o're troubled sea, still 'tis his hand that leadeth me. Refrain.

Lord, I would place my hand in thine, nor ever murmur nor re-pine; content, whatever lot I see, since 'tis my God that leadeth me. Refrain.
